

Contents

Authors	3
Glossary	7
1 Overview and assessment: the future of the euro Central Banking Publications	9
2 Exchange rate issues relating to the acceding countries Tommaso Padoa-Schioppa	13
3 Monetary policies in the accession countries Jill Leyland	23
4 The ten central banks Central Banking Publications	35
5 Preparedness for the euro Central Banking Publications	45
6 Challenges for central banks in the new member states Max Watson	53
7 A toolkit for financial stability Max Watson	65
8 EU accession and the euro: close together or far apart? Peter Kenen and Ellen Meade	79
9 New EU countries – opportunities and risks Eva Srejber	99
10 The future of the euro: an outsider’s view Václav Klaus	109

The interviews

11 How the governors see the world Joanna Langham	117
12 Leszek Balcerowicz president, National Bank of Poland	125
13 Zdeněk Tůma governor, Czech National Bank	137
14 Michael Bonello governor, Central Bank of Malta	145
15 The Baltic states: central bank governors Vahur Kraft, Ilmars Rimsevics and Reinoldijus Šarkinas	159
16 Christodoulos Christodoulou governor, Central Bank of Cyprus	167
17 Zsigmond Járαι president, National Bank of Hungary	175
18 Marian Jusko governor, National Bank of Slovakia	185
19 Mitja Gaspari governor, Bank of Slovenia	195

Appendices

Appendix 1: Central bank accession strategies	203
Appendix 2: The ECB's Policy position on enlargement	223
Appendix 3: Intervention in ERM II	231
Appendix 4: Formal procedures for accession	235
Appendix 5: How the ECB will vote in an enlarged eurosystem	237
Notes on the text	241